After our attempt to download the software package failed, I decided to go ahead and request a refund for the download. No matter what I tried, I could not get the software to download. After telling me I needed to have a good internet connection to download the software, I asked them if they even knew what they were talking about. The woman I dealt with told me to contact their technical department to file a refund request. I contacted their technical department to request a refund but I never heard back from them. I tried following their instructions but nothing worked. I had a hard time understanding their instructions and their site was very confusing. I finally gave up trying to download the software. I decided to just cancel my membership subscription. I kept hoping that my membership would renew automatically to avoid paying $50 for the subscription, but nothing happened. According to the terms and conditions, I was not supposed to cancel my membership without the software being returned or canceled. I had a hard time figuring out how to cancel my subscription, but when I finally figured it out, I returned my membership subscription and I am now trying to download the software. I am still trying to figure out how to cancel the software. It took me a lot of research and time to figure out how to cancel the software. I was able to successfully cancel my membership subscription. I would have to say that this is a scam website to begin with. Yes, I know some companies can be scams. Despite the numerous reasons why their refund request should be denied, I hope that this warning will help other website owners to avoid this scam. I am having a hard time figuring out how to cancel the software, so I really don't know how to cancel the software. It took me a long time to figure out how to cancel the software. I would have to say that the instructions to do this were difficult to follow. I got sick of all of the problems, so I decided to cancel my membership. I am trying to cancel my subscription but I am having a hard time doing it. I do not have much experience with this sort of thing so it was a bit difficult for me to figure out how to cancel the subscription. I would not recommend this site to anyone.
