Amid the protests over the new-tax, the Shiv Sena party in Delhi on Wednesday issued a statement saying that the 'ear-tax' will be stopped. This is likely to reignite the whole issue of the Delhi property-tax. The Mumbai police have been asked to keep a close watch on the protests. In a written statement to the media in Mumbai, the party has expressed concern over the 'bail' or 'ear-tax' in Delhi and it's stated that it will keep an 'eye' on it. Shiv Sena chairperson Uddhav Thackeray has been appealing to party workers to oppose the 'ear-tax' in Delhi by taking part in the protests. Kishore Thakur, senior leader of Shiv Sena, on Tuesday wrote an open letter to Prime Minister Narendra Modi. "Dear PM, I request you to change the government. The people of India have already raised their voice against corruption and nepotism. They have also raised the voice against what is called an arbitrary tax on property. I request you to stop this tax and punish the offenders," he said. He further said that he has been receiving requests from party-workers and traders, who have been voicing concerns over this tax.The effect of tree species identity, family identity, and genetics on the variability of pathogen resistance in Pinus radiata D.
